

2011 AND BEYOND....

2 Peter 1:19-20 We also have the prophetic message as something completely reliable, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. ²⁰ Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation of things.

North America

- 1) The New Year will begin with several efforts of teamwork, promises and financial restoration all across the country.
- 2) The economy will improve visibly in the first few months and then it will deteriorate again. This will affect the unemployed and the pensioners most.
- 3) Many changes will be made in financial institutions, as well in the field of education, investments and employment. Many more opportunities will be created for people to work and make a living while more subsidies will be announced.
- 4) The dollar will become weaker.
- 5) Though many schemes will be announced they will not be implemented because of fear of major disunity in high places.
- 6) Major steps will be taken by the President and Hillary Clinton to maintain relations and peace with the international community.
- 7) The war in Afghanistan will continue this will result in the US presence in Iraq to decrease. There will be efforts to increase peace with Iran and North Korea.
- 8) New Foreign Policies will make it difficult for the USA to support Israel and sustain its political stand concerning Palestine.
- 9) God will shake the Church in USA and many leading preachers will be exposed.
- 10) The emphasis in churches will begin to shift from "Prosperity" to "Holiness".
